PART IINarrative Summary

From 1-31 May 1968 the 1st Battalion, 3d Marines participated in operation NAPOLEON/SALINE within the Cua Viet River Area Complex. The Battalion's overall mission during this period was to deny the enemy access to the river and ensure uninterrupted traffic on the river. This was accomplished by conducting systematic Company and Platoon Search and Destroy operations along the south bank of the river within the Battalion AO on a recurring basis and Battalion Search and Destroy operations within the Regimental AO. During the period 3-9 May 1968 a Battalion Search and Destroy operation was conducted through Dia Do (YD 2530), Huong Do (YD 247634) and Truc Kinh (YD 389645). Due to the rapidly changing tactical situation north of the Cua Viet River the Battalion was redeployed by helicopter to an LZ in the vicinity of Mai Xa Thi (YD 279664), given OPCON of Company F, 2nd Bn, 4th Marines and Company A, 1st Bn, 9th Marines, and conducted a Search and Destroy operation to the north through Lan Xuan (YD 269700), Pho Con (YD 250708) and the southern limits of Lai An (YD 247732). This operation terminated 31 May 1968 and the Battalion returned to its' operating base at Giao Lien (YD 291644).

Activity throughout the period was characterized by negative enemy contact on the south bank of the Cua Viet River and heavy contact against NVA Forces while operating to the north of the river. Numerous caches of enemy ordnance were located and destroyed and a large quantity of enemy weapons and equipment was captured.

6. Logistics. During the month on May, the Battalion Rear was relocated within the Quang Tri Combat Base. The Battalion Logistic Support Area (LSA) established at (YD 296654) in March continued to function. The LSA stocked three days Class I, seven days Class III (gasoline), and three days Class V. Class II and IV items were provided upon request from the Battalion Rear. Supplies were transported from Quang Tri Combat Base and FLSG-B at Dong Ha Combat Base to the LCU Ramp at NSAO Dong Ha bby truck, and on the Cua Viet Waterway by LCM-8's, multi-purpose barges, and fire team assault crafts. Resupply was effected from the LSA by LVTP-5's and OTTERS. During the periods 3-7 May and 25-31 May operational commitments north of the Cua Viet Waterway necessitated effecting resupply for part of the Battalion by helicopters. During these periods all resupplies were provided directly from the Battalion Rear for those units north of the Cua Viet Waterway while those units south of the Cua Viet Waterway continued to receive their supplies from the LSA as outlined above.

7. Supply. During the month of May 202 requisitions were submitted. Of these, 119 were filled.

11. Intelligence. During the month of May two heavy contacts with NVA units took place north of the Qua Viet Waterway. The first occurred from 3-9 May in the vicinity of Dai Do (YD 254649) and Som Soi (YD 248648). Heavily fortified positions consisting of bunkers, trench lines, and spider holes strengthened by concertina wire and claymore mines were defended tenaciously. Among 189 weapons captured were (2) 82mm recoilless field guns, (4) 82mm mortars, (2) 60mm mortars, and (2) heavy machine guns, as well as 27 individual weapons in one cache. Our units inflicted 338 KIA's and captured 6 PW's.

There were three individual significant incidents. First, on 21 May 2 NVA transportation soldiers were captured after swimming south across the Qua Viet Waterway vicinity (YD 258615). Second, one of our units in conjunction with the River Assault Group Boats seized 10 individual weapons from 2 sampans on the Qua Viet Waterway vicinity (YD 263626). Finally, 2 detainees were taken on 25 May vicinity Thau Hoi (YD 385645) and sent to regiment.

The second heavy contact took place from 27-31 May in the vicinity (YD 249712). On 27 May the Battalion (Rein) moved through 2/9's positions, receiving heavy mortar, recoilless field gun and small arms fire from the heavily fortified enemy bunkers, trenches, and spider holes in addition to artillery rounds from North Vietnam. After intensive air, artillery, and mortar preparation on 29 May the Battalion (Rein) seized most of the enemy positions. Early on 30 May the rest were occupied; 78 NVA KIA's confirmed; 6 PW's captured; 3 ChiCom radios, a ChiCom phone with a land line leading north, and a U.S. Army radio and 30 weapons taken. The Battalion (Rein) was directed to push forward to Lai An (YD 247723) before turning south, and 2/9 was given the mission of policing and collecting enemy equipment and getting enemy body counts.

During the month 1 ARVN liaison Officer, 5 interpreters, and 8 Kit Carson Scouts served the Battalion effectively..

12. Fire Support. From 1-31 May 1968 the following units fired in support of the 1st Battalion, 3d Marines:

3. Air Support. The month of May was highlighted by two periods of Field Operations which accounted for most of the air support received by the Battalion. The period of 1-10 May was the first Field Operation, and required mostly medevacs and resupplies, and a large troop lift. During the action of 23-31 May the Battalion, in conjunction with 2nd Bn, 9th Marines and units of 2nd Bn, 4th Marines and 1st Bn, 9th Marines OPCON to the Battalion utilized many medevacs and trooplift missions, also numerous A.O. and Fixed Wing missions were utilized extensively. Weather in May was good for Air Support with the exception of 28 and 29 May when low ceilings hampered Fixed Wing support for part of each day.
